Light Side Wellness LLC provides virtual life coaching sessions with Sarah Beltran, MSW. Life coaching is a form of individualized support to help you define and achieve your goals. It is an action-based, solution-focused, collaborative process that provides a framework to identify, track, and maintain progress toward living your most desired life!

Life coaching can assist with a number of life's difficulties, including:
- Breaking bad habits / establishing healthy habits
- Managing and reducing high-stress and overwhelm
- Conquering a lack of motivation
- Overcoming academic struggles
- Gaining life skills (spatial organization, time management, personal hygiene and grooming, budgeting, etc.)
- Stabilizing after a major life event
- Transitioning into a new social or professional role
- Answering career-related and other life path questions
- Unblocking your creative flow
- Resolving conflict and communication problems
- Building social skills (assertiveness, conversational skills, etc.)
- Recovering from substance, digital, or process addiction
- Establishing a healthy work/life balance
- Addressing spiritual issues
- Mental health recovery
- Addiction recovery

If you are experiencing any of these challenges, or want a helping hand in maintaining a satisfying life, then seeking the support of an experienced, empathetic, and empowering life coach may be appropriate for you!

Please note: Life coaching is NOT a mental health treatment or talk therapy. Even so, many people living with mental health concerns such as anxiety, depression, ADHD, bipolar disorder, PTSD, and more may still benefit from practical help navigating their own uniquely complex challenges! Working with a life coach like Sarah can be deeply impactful for these folks whose social work background provides an understanding of how mental health can affect all areas of life.
